

Human Trafficking Judicial Checklist

Has child been victim of sex trafficking?

- A person knowingly transported, enticed, recruited, harbored, provided, or otherwise obtained the child by any means; AND
 - Caused the child to engage in, or become the victim of, an enumerated sex offense;
 - Received a benefit from participating in a venture that involves an enumerated sex offense; OR
 - Engaged in sexual conduct with a trafficked child
- Child under 18 years of age, regardless of trafficker's knowledge

What is child labor trafficking?

- A person knowingly:
 - Trafficked child with intent that the child engage in forced labor or services; OR
 - Received a benefit from participating in a venture that involves forced child labor or services including knowingly receiving forced child labor or services
- Child under 18 years of age, regardless of trafficker's knowledge

Under what circumstances will DFPS investigate trafficking?

- If a person traditionally responsible for child's care, custody, or welfare:
 - Compelled or encouraged the child to engage in sexual conduct including child sex trafficking, prostitution, or compelling prostitution;
 - Knowingly caused, permitted, encouraged, engaged in, or allowed a child to be trafficked for sex or labor; OR
 - Failed to make a reasonable effort to prevent the child from being trafficked for sex or labor

If child has been missing from foster care, were the following steps taken?

- DFPS made report:
 - To law enforcement and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) no later than 24 hours after learning a child is missing or abducted
- Within 24 hours of learning child missing or returned to care after missing, DFPS notified law enforcement, court, child's AAL and GAL, and parents (unless no known location, TPR, or relinquishment)
- While a child is missing, DFPS makes continuing efforts to locate the child including monthly contacts with law enforcement and former caregivers and supervisory-level review
- After a missing child returns to care, DFPS interviewed the child about why the child was missing, where the child stayed while missing, and whether the child was a victim of sex trafficking while missing

Are there any red flags to help identify child trafficking victims?

- Multiple runaways from foster care placement in a short period of time
- Changes in school attendance habits, appearance, socio-economic status and possessions, friend groups, interests, school activities, vocabulary, demeanor, attitude, and sexual behavior
- Unexplained injuries: bruising, swelling, redness, cigarette burns
- Tattoos or branding
- Hotel key cards or refillable gift cards
