- ☐ Ask Child's Attorney Ad Litem if has seen client and when.
 - If AAL has not seen client, determine whether the AAL has shown good cause for not meeting with the client. Tex. Fam. Code § 107.004(e)
- AAL should also be knowledgeable about medical care and education goals and progress. Tex. Fam. Code § 107.003(b); Tex. Fam. Code § 107.004(d-2)
- AAL has duty to advise clients 16 and older of right to seek designation from the court to serve as own medical consenter. Tex. Fam. Code § 107.004(b)(3)

Court Findings

At the End of the Hearing:

- □ Ensure FINDINGS and issue court order which comports with determinations made pursuant to Tex. Fam. Code § 263.5031.
- □ Set next Permanency Hearing After Final Order no later than 180 days from date of present hearing. Tex. Fam. Code § 263.501(a)

Best Practices

- ☐ If necessary parties, including child, did not receive notice, consider resetting hearing to secure their attendance.
- ☐ Engage youth.
 - Tell me how you feel about your medical care, school, grades, and activities.
 - Tell me how you're being treated in your placement.
 - What do you want for your future?
- ☐ Engage caregivers with direct questions.
 - Do you understand the purpose of this hearing?
 - Do you understand the DFPS permanency goal for the child(ren)?
 - Were you given the opportunity to discuss or provide input into this permanency plan?
- □ REASONABLE EFFORTS: Ask direct and child-specific questions of DFPS about both the primary goal and the concurrent goal.
 - If primary goal is adoption: please articulate the specific efforts you have made to find an adoptive home for Mary Jane; please be specific in describing your actions with regard to each.

- If concurrent goal is permanent managing conservatorship to a relative: articulate the specific efforts you have made to place Mary Jane with her grandmother, etc.
- □ Set Next Hearing within 90 or 120 days instead of 180 days.
- ☐ For Youth Receiving Transitional Living Services:
 - Youth 14 and older are eligible for family group decision-making about their future;
 - Youth 16 and older must be enrolled in Preparation for Adult Living (PAL); and
 - All youth who will turn 18 while in foster care are:
 - Discuss eligibility for extended foster care and trial independence;
 - Ensure referrals to Texas Workforce Commission; and
 - Ensure certain documents in their possession before they leave care, including a driver's license or identification card, birth certificate, social security card, immunization records, proof of enrollment in Medicaid, and copy of credit report.

continued

Best Practices

- □ Determine if child has been advised of eligibility for Family Group Decision-Making or Circles of Support in regard to their future.
- □ Determine if child has been enrolled in PAL or provided transitional services after 14th birthday.
- ☐ Ask the following questions:
 - What is preventing this child from achieving positive permanency?
 - How is my decision specific to this child and this family?
 - Are there cultural issues we need to understand?

Well-being Issues that may be pertinent at Permanency Hearing After Final Order

Medical Care and Mental Health:

- ☐ Permanency Progress Report must include a summary of medical care, including:
 - Nature of emergency medical care provided to child and circumstances necessitating care, include injury or acute illness of child.

- $\circ~$ other info required by DFPS or rule of court.

Education and Educational Decisions:

 - Whether transportation is available;
 - Whether change can be coordinated with grading and testing periods; and
 - Whether records and credits transferred.
- ☐ If too young for school (0-3 years), child assessed for developmental milestones through ECI; if 0-5, child enrolled in Early Head Start, Head Start, or Pre-Kindergarten.
- □ Educational Decision-maker identified on Form 2085-E. Tex. Fam. Code § 263.004
- ☐ School supports and disciplinary issues addressed, including signed form prohibiting corporal punishment.

Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA)

When Does ICWA Apply?

- □ In a "child custody proceeding" defined as any action, other than an emergency proceeding, that may result in a foster care placement, termination of parental rights, pre-adoptive placement or adoptive placement as defined in 25 U.S.C. § 1903(1); 25 C.F.R. §23.2 and
- ☐ Involving an "Indian child" defined as
 - Unmarried, under the age of 18, and a member of an Indian Tribe; or
 - Unmarried, under the age of 18, eligible for membership in an Indian Tribe and is the biological child of a member of a federally recognized Indian Tribe. 25 U.S.C. § 1903(4); 25 C.F.R. §23.2.

Note: Each Tribe determines eligibility for membership or enrollment, not the court. If ICWA applies, please also refer to NCJFCJ ICWA Checklists.

Notice Requirements

25 U.S.C. § 1912(a); 25 C.F.R. §23.11

- ☐ The child's parent, Indian custodian, and Tribe must be notified by registered mail or certified mail, return receipt requested, with copies to the appropriate BIA Regional Directors. Upon request of a party, the BIA will make a reasonable attempt to identify and locate the Tribe, parents or Indian custodian.
- ☐ Finding on the record that timely notice was or was not provided as required.

Best Practice: If not sure, but there is reason to believe the child might be an Indian child, NOTIFY all of the above and make a finding on the record.

Foster Care or Pre-adoptive Placement Preferences

25 U.S.C. § 1915(a)-(b); 25 C.F.R. §23.131

- □ Child must be placed in the least restrictive setting that most approximates a family, taking into consideration sibling attachment, allows the Indian child's special needs (if any) to be met; and is in reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home, extended family, or siblings.
- □ Where the Tribe has not established a different order, preference for placement must be given, in descending order to (1) extended family; (2) a foster home approved by the Tribe; (3) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or (4) an institution for children approved by an Indian Tribe or operated by an Indian organization which has a program suitable to meet the child's needs.
- ☐ The court must, where appropriate, also consider the preference of the Indian child or the Indian child's parent.
- □ If any party asserts that there is good cause not to follow the placement preferences, the reasons for that belief or assertion must be stated orally on the record or provided in writing to the parties and the court. The party seeking departure from the placement preferences should bear the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that there is "good cause" to depart from the placement preferences. A court's determination of good cause to depart from the placement preferences must be made on the record or in writing and should be based on one or more of the following considerations:
 - 1. The request of one or both of the Indian child's parents, if they attest that they have reviewed the placement options, if any, that comply with the order of preference;
 - 2. The request of the child, if the child is of sufficient age and capacity to understand the decision that is being made:
 - 3. The presence of a sibling attachment that can be maintained only through a particular placement; or
 - 4. The extraordinary physical, mental, or emotional needs of the Indian child, such as specialized treatment services that may be unavailable in the community where families who meet the placement preferences live.

Special Evidentiary Rules

- Clear and convincing evidence that custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child. The evidence must show a causal relationship between the particular conditions in the home and the likelihood that continued custody of the child will result in serious emotional or physical damage. 25 C.F.R. §23.121.
- Must include testimony of a "qualified expert witness" who is qualified to testify about whether the child's continued custody by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child and should be qualified to testify as to the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian child's tribe. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(e); 25 C.F.R. §23.122.
- Finding of "Active Efforts" to prevent to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have been unsuccessful. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(d); 25 C.F.R. §23.120.

☐ Threshold for Termination of Parental Rights

- Evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that custody of the child by the parent of Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child and a causal relationship. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(f); 25 C.F.R. §23.121.
- Supported by testimony of a "qualified expert witness." 25 U.S.C. § 1912(f); 25 C.F.R. §23.122.
- Finding that "Active Efforts" have been made to prevent the breakup of the Indian family and that those efforts have been unsuccessful. 25 U.S.C. § 1912(d); 25 C.F.R. §23.120.

Best Practices for Active Efforts Include: (i) early contact and active engagement with the child's Tribe; (ii) higher level of efforts using methods and providing services that are culturally appropriate; and (iii) commitment to the spirit of ICWA in the context of the historical trauma. Remember that active efforts must be documented in detail in the record.

Practical First Steps to Address Disproportionality and Implicit Bias

Reflections to Protect Against Implicit Bias

- How might my assumptions influence my decisionmaking?
- ☐ How have I challenged any assumptions I might have made based on race, ethnicity, culture, sexual orientation, gender, profession, or background?
- ☐ Have my assumptions created inequitable outcomes in my Court?
- ☐ Have I maintained accountability for myself and my courtroom practices in checking and removing bias?

Talking about race is a Courageous Conversation.

- 1. Stay engaged.
- 2. Experience discomfort.
- 3. Speak your truth.
- 4. Expect and accept non-closure.

Tips to Improve Decision-Making in Child Welfare Hearings

Make sure parties and key witnesses are present and if they are not present, assure they were properly served/subpoenaed.
Review petition out loud with all parties present to ensure it includes allegations specific to each parent. If there is no dangerous act or omission on part of a parent, the child goes home with that. parent.
Engage the parents by name and allow opportunity for parents and youth to inform the Court of their pronouns, if desired.
Inquire if reasonable efforts were made to prevent removal. Assure family decision making tools were utilized, such as a Family Team Meeting (FTM).
Ask yourself if the family's cultural background, customs, and traditions have been taken into account with the events and circumstances that led to the removal. Think about whether these aspects of the family actually make a child unsafe or at risk, even if they are different from your own expectations of family life and parenting.
Ask what is preventing the child from returning home to a relative TODAY? And consider whether any of the barriers preventing the child from returning home are related to a systemic issue that is making it more difficult for the parent or child to access the support they need.
Consider the appropriateness of current placement and whether it is culturally responsive and provides trauma responsive supports and services.
Allow opportunity during the hearing for discussion and concerns related to systemic issues for parents and/or children involved in the case.
Close the hearing with a specific question to ensure that the parties understand what happened or allow an opportunity for parents to ask questions about anything they did not understand.

What is Disproportionality?

Disproportionality is a term to describe when a particular racial or cultural group is represented within a social system at a rate or percentage that is not proportionate to their representation in the general population.

What is Implicit Bias?

- Implicit bias "refers to subconscious feelings, attitudes, and stereotypes that affect our understanding, actions, and decision-making processes in an unconscious manner."
- Research shows that individuals naturally develop unconscious attitudes and stereotypes as a routine process of sorting and categorizing the vast amounts of sensory information they encounter on an ongoing basis.
- "Implicit" (as opposed to explicit) attitudes and stereotypes operate automatically, without awareness, intent, or conscious control, which is common to the human experience.
- These unconscious associations can influence judgment. For example, results from the Implicit Association Test showed that 80% of white adults more closely associated white faces with regular household items and black faces with weapons.
- Relying on data by counting outcomes, using tools to engage deliberate thinking, training, and judicial leadership can all counterbalance the bias which is frequently inherent in our intuition.

What are the Differences Between Equality, Equity, and Justice?

Seeking to provide families before the court with the best opportunity to achieve permanency requires a review of court practices to ensure each family receives the support and services based on their individual needs and resources. This graphic demonstrates how courts can examine system practices with a goal towards equity and justice.

Reflections on the Decision-Making Process to Protect Against Institutional Bias

Ask yourself, as a judge:

- Am I considering relatives as preferred placement options as long as they can protect the child and support the permanency plan?
- What evidence has supported every conclusion I have drawn, and how have I challenged unsupported assumptions?
- What assumptions have I made about the cultural identity, genders, and background of this family?
- What is my understanding of this family's unique culture and circumstances?
- How is my decision specific to this child and this family?
- How has the court's past contact and involvement with this family influenced (or how might it influence) my decision-making process and findings?
- Am I convinced that reasonable efforts (or active efforts in ICWA cases) have been made in an individualized way to match the needs of the family?

KEY INQUIRIES, ANALYSES AND DECISIONS THE COURT SHOULD MAKE AT THE PRELIMINARY PROTECTIVE HEARING

Persons who should be Present:

- Judge or judicial officer
- Parents of each child whose rights have not been terminated
- Mothers, fathers (legal, biological, alleged, putative, named), non-custodial parents –all possible parents
- Parent partners

- Paternal and maternal relatives
- Non-related extended family, fictive kin (someone who is known and trusted by the families; godparents)
- Assigned caseworker
- Agency attorney
- Attorney for each parent (if conflict exists)
- Legal advocate for the child
- Guardian ad Litem (GAL)
- Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA)
- ICWA expert (if ICWA applies)
- Tribal representative/tribal liaison

- All age-appropriate children
- Foster parents
- Cultural leaders, cultural liaisons, religious leaders
- Court-certified interpreters or court-certified language services

COURTS CAN MAKE SURE THAT PARTIES AND KEY WITNESSES ARE PRESENT BY:

- Ensuring that the judge, not the bailiff or court staff, makes the determination about who is allowed to be in the courtroom.
- Asking the youth/family if there is someone else who should be present.
- Requiring quick and diligent notification efforts by the agency.
- Requiring both oral and written notification in a language understandable to each party and witness.

- Requiring service/tribal notice to include the reason for removal, purpose of the hearing, and availability of legal assistance in a language and form that is understandable to each party and witness.
- Requiring caseworkers and/or protective service investigators to facilitate attendance of children, parents, relatives (paternal and maternal), fictive kin, and other parties.
- Facilitating telephonic or video conferencing appearance at hearings.

REVIEWING THE PETITION

- A sworn petition or complaint should be filed prior to the preliminary protective hearing and served/provided to the parents.
- The petition should be specific about the facts that bring the child before the court.
- The petition should not be conclusory without relevant facts to explain and support the conclusions.
- Petitions need to include allegations specific to each legal parent or legal guardian if appropriate.
- If the petition does not contain allegations against a legal parent or legal guardian, the child should be placed with or returned to that parent or legal guardian unless it is determined that there is a safety threat to the child.
- Petitions/removal affidavits need to include specific language clearly articulating the current threat to the child's safety.

ENGAGE PARENTS

- What language are you most comfortable speaking and reading?
- Do you understand what this hearing is about?
- What family members and/or other important people should be involved in this process with us?
- Do you understand the petition? (review petition with parties)

DUE PROCESS

- Who are the child's parents and/or guardians?
- How was paternity determined?

- What were the diligent search efforts for all parents?
- Have efforts to identify and locate fathers been sufficient? What has been done?
- How were the parents notified for this hearing?
 - was the notice in a language and form understandable to parents and/or guardians?
- Do the parents understand the allegations?
- Are the parents entitled to representation? Are there language issues to consider when appointing attorneys?
- Are there issues in the case that are covered by the Americans with Disabilities Act?

LEGAL THRESHOLD FOR REMOVAL

- Has the agency made a prima facie case or probable cause showing that supports the removal of the child?
- Have the family's cultural background, customs and traditions been taken into account in evaluating the event and circumstances that led to the removal? Have the parent(s) cultural or tribal liaison/relevant other(s) been asked if there is a culturally-based explanation for the allegations in the petition?

REASONABLE EFFORTS (TO PREVENT REMOVAL)

- Were there any pre-hearing conferences or meetings that included the family?
 - o who was present?
 - o what was the outcome?
- What services were considered and offered to allow the child to remain at home? Were these services culturally appropriate? How are these services rationally related to the safety threat?
- What was done to create a safety plan to allow the child to remain at home or in the home of another without court involvement?
 - have non-custodial parents, paternal and maternal relatives been identified and explored? What is the plan to do so?

 How has the agency intervened with this family in the past? Has the agency's previous contact with the family influenced its response to this family now?

WHAT IS PREVENTING THE CHILD FROM RETURNING HOME TODAY?

- What is the current and immediate safety threat? Has the threat diminished? How do you know that? Specifically, how can the risk be ameliorated or removed?
- What is preventing the child from returning home today? What type of safety plan could be developed and implemented in order for the child to return home today?
 - what specifically prevents the parents from being able to provide the minimally adequate standard of care to protect the child?
 - will the removal or addition of any person from or in the home allow the child to be safe and be placed back in the home?
- If the safety threat is too high to return the child home, how have the conditions for return been conveyed to the parents, family and child, and are you satisfied that they understand these conditions?

APPROPRIATENESS OF PLACEMENT

- If child is placed in foster care/shelter, have kinship care options been fully explored? If not, what is being done to explore relatives? If so, why were the relatives deemed inappropriate?
- If child is placed in kinship care, what steps have been taken to ensure the relative is linked with all available training, services, and financial support?
- How is the placement culturally and linguistically appropriate?
 - o from the family and child's perspective, is the current placement culturally and linguistically appropriate?
- How does the placement support the child's cultural identity? In what way does the placement support the child's connection to the family and community?
- How does the placement support the family/child's involvement in the initial plan?
- What are the terms of meaningful family time with parents, siblings and extended family members?
 - do the terms of family time match the safety concerns? Is it supervised?
 Specifically, why must it be supervised?

o is the time and location of family time logistically possible for the family, and supportive of the child's needs?

REASONABLE EFFORTS TO ALLOW THE CHILD TO SAFELY RETURN HOME

- What services can be arranged to allow the child to safely return home today?
- How are these services rationally related to the specific safety threat?
- How are the parents, extended family, and children being engaged in the development and implementation of a plan for services, interventions, and supports?
- How will the agency assist the family to access the services?
 - o does the family believe that these services, interventions, and supports will meet their current needs and build upon strengths?
 - o has the family been given the opportunity to ask for additional or alternate services?
- How are the services, interventions and supports specifically tailored to the culture and needs of this child and family?
 - o how do they build on family strengths?
 - o how is the agency determining that the services, interventions, and supports are culturally appropriate?
- What evidence has been provided by the agency to demonstrate that the services/interventions for this family have effectively met the needs and produced positive outcomes for families with similar presenting issues and demographic characteristics?

CLOSING QUESTIONS TO ASK PARENTS, CHILDREN, AND FAMILY MEMBERS

- Do you understand what happened here today?
- Do you understand what the next steps are?

Do you have any questions for the court?

Permanency Care Assistance: Key Issues for Judges

The Permanency Care Assistance (PCA) program offers long-term financial assistance for relative and fictive kin (longstanding and significant relationship with the child) caregivers, who take permanent legal responsibility for children in DFPS conservatorship. PCA benefits are similar to adoption assistance benefits but are available to certain caregivers when reunification and adoption are not appropriate.

PCA Key Eligibility Requirements

(For complete list, see: 42 U.S.C. § 673(d); 40 Tex. Administrative Code, Chapter 700, Subchapter J, Division 2)

- Neither reunification nor adoption is an appropriate permanency goal for the child.
- The child shows a strong attachment to the caregiver who is the prospective permanent managing conservator (PMC) and that caregiver is committed to caring for the child permanently.
- Children must be consulted about the arrangement if they are 14 or older.
- The caregiver must become a verified foster parent AND receive foster care reimbursement for the child for a minimum of six consecutive months before becoming the child's permanent managing conservator.
- The PCA agreement must be negotiated and signed before the Court appoints the caregiver as the permanent managing conservator. (Note: If DFPS is named joint managing conservator with the prospective permanent managing conservator before the PCA agreement is signed, the caregiver will lose eligibility for foster care reimbursement and therefore PCA.)

IF THE CHILD HAS NOT BEEN IN THE HOME FOR A MINIMUM OF
SIX CONSECUTIVE MONTHS
AFTER THE HOME BECOMES VERIFIED,
THE CHILD IS INELIGIBLE
TO RECEIVE PCA BENEFITS
UNDER STATEAND FEDERAL LAW

Important Points about Permanency Care Assistance (PCA)

- 1. Determine whether the parties want the caregiver to become the child's permanent managing conservator with the support of PCA.
 - a. If so, the court must ensure that the PCA agreement is negotiated and signed by DFPS and the caregiver(s) before issuing final orders naming the caregiver as permanent managing conservator. Otherwise, the caregiver(s) will lose eligibility for PCA benefits.
 - b. If an agreement cannot be negotiated and signed prior to the 12-month deadline because the child has not been in the home as a verified foster home for six consecutive months, consider one of the following options below to ensure that the caregiver will qualify for PCA:
 - Appoint DFPS as managing conservator in the final order, and once the caregiver qualifies for PCA, DFPS can seek a modification of the final order alleging a material and substantial change in circumstances and request that the caregiver be appointed permanent managing conservator with PCA.
 - > Grant a one-time extension of the mandatory dismissal deadline.
 - c. If the parties are not planning to get PCA benefits for a prospective permanent managing conservator, ask if they have considered it and determine if that is in the child's best interest.
 - ➤ If applicable, inform the caregiver in open court that agreeing to serve as PMC for the child before qualifying for PCA means those benefits will not be available in the future.
- 2. At the appropriate time (after the PCA agreement has been negotiated and signed) make sure the pleadings request that the caregiver serve as PMC with the support of PCA.
- 3. Consider the following important implications before naming the caregiver joint PMC with the department or any other person.
 - ➤ If DFPS is named joint managing conservator with the prospective PMC, the prospective PMC will lose eligibility for foster care reimbursement and PCA.
 - The prospective PMC will lose eligibility for PCA if the court's final order awards joint permanent managing conservatorship to both the prospective PCA recipient and a parent of the child, or enters any other orders that effectively reunite the parent with the child
 - The court's final order may award joint PMC of the child to more than one caregiver, relative, or fictive kin but only the caregiver(s) who met all PCA eligibility criteria will be eligible to receive PCA benefits for the child.

³ Concrete terms refer to objects or events that are available to the senses. For example, use "in the backyard" instead of "area."

Changes in a child's demeanor while answering questions may have several meanings. For example, a child could look to an adult for the answer because he is attached to that adult and wants to please him or her. On the other hand, the same action can mean that the child is afraid of the adult. Preparations for court attendance

- Ensure that your courtroom is child friendly.6
- Ensure all children are accompanied by a familiar caregiver, such as a foster parent.
- Consult with the child's caregiver when scheduling the next hearing so it does not interfere with the child's normal daily routine, e.g., naptime, mealtime, etc.
- If the child is verbal:
 - If helpful, offer to have a conversation in chambers, making sure it complies with all procedural rules.
 - Have the agency invite him to submit drawings, cards, or other age-appropriate materials periodically. Refer to anything previously submitted.

- Do you like where you are staying now?
- What do you like (not like) about where you are staying now?
 Suggest options (e.g., bedroom, pets, people who live there).
- Do you go to preschool or daycare? What things do you like to do while you are there?
- What kinds of things did you and your mommy (or daddy) do the last time you saw her (or him)?

Communicate with the child during the hearing

- · Keep language simple and age appropriate.
- Talk with the child about his interests, likes, and dislikes.
- If helpful, offer to have a conversation in chambers, making sure it complies with all procedural rules.
- Provide an age-appropriate list of legal terms to the child before court to which he may refer during the hearing.³
- Avoid legal jargon and acronyms.
- Encourage the child to ask questions, particularly if he doesn't understand a question or statement.
- Answer one question at a time.
- · Recognize cultural differences in language.
- Avoid abstract questions.⁴ Recognize that school-age children usually answer questions literally. For example: Q: Are you in school now? A: No. The child may be referring to where she is right now (the courtroom) instead of the broader question of whether she attends school.

• Publicly praise the child's accomplishments.

Observe the child's behavior and appearance

- Observe the child's interaction with caregivers, parents, and guardians.⁵
 - Does the child look to them for help, support, advice, etc.?
- Observe the child's physical appearance and health.
 - Is the child appropriately dressed?
 - Does the child look well-nourished?
 - Does the child have appropriate personal hygiene?
- Observe the child's body language.
 - Be mindful of signs that the child may be frustrated or overwhelmed.⁶

Preparations for court appearance

- Ensure that your courtroom is child friendly.⁷
- Ensure all children are accompanied by a support person at the hearing such as a foster parent, CASA, mentor, coach, or other adult role model.
- Have the agency encourage the child to submit report cards, letters, drawings, or other age-appropriate materials periodically. Refer to anything previously submitted.
- Read anything that the child gives to the court while the child is present.
- Review the outcome of the hearing with the child and answer any questions (or ensure that someone else will do so).
- Ensure the child understands what was ordered and why.
- If age appropriate, ask the child what he wants to accomplish before the next hearing.
- ¹ This bench card was created to assist judges when a child is present in the courtroom. It does not include what information the judge should require from additional parties, such as a report from the child's therapist about the child's mental health status.

- ⁵ Please note that some school-age children act out behaviorally with those they trust because they feel safe enough to express their stress, fear, or frustration. The child may also be testing limits. In addition, changes in a child's demeanor while answering questions may have several meanings. For example, a child could look to an adult for the answer because he is attached to that adult and wants to please him or her. On the other hand, the same action can mean that the child is afraid of the adult.
- ⁶ Signs may include squirming, lying down, or fussing.
- 7 It may be necessary to address issues related to the child's safety at the courthouse and the appropriateness of courtroom waiting areas. Judges may find it beneficial to have age-appropriate toys and books available.

- Consult with the child and his caregiver when scheduling the next hearing so it does not interfere with the child's normal daily routine, including school.
- Keep a school district calendar on the bench to ensure there are no conflicts with state standardized tests.
- Thank the child for coming to court.
- Encourage the child to attend the next hearing.
- Ask the child whether he has any last questions, thoughts, or concerns.

Possible questions to ask the child

- How old are you?
- What is your best friend's name?
- What do you like (or not like) about where you are staying now?
- Do you see your mom and dad?
- Do you miss anyone? Provide options, e.g., brothers, sisters, grandparents.
- Where do you go to school?
- What grade are you in?

Preparations for court attendance

- Ensure that your courtroom is teen friendly.⁶
- Ensure all children are accompanied by a support person at the hearing such as the foster parents, CASA, mentor, coach, or other adult role model.
- · Have the agency invite the youth to submit report cards, letters, drawings, stories, poems, or other age-appropriate materials periodically. Refer to anything previously submitted.
- · Read anything that the youth gives to the court while the youth is present.
- When appropriate, ask for the youth's input and opinions.
- Talk with the youth about permanency options.⁷
- Review the outcome of the hearing with the youth and answer any questions (or ensure that someone else will do so).
- Ensure the youth understands what was ordered and why.
- When appropriate, share court documents with the youth.8
- Ask the youth what he wants to accomplish before the next hearing.
- Consult with the youth and his caregiver when scheduling the next hearing so it does not interfere with the youth's normal daily routine, including school.
- Keep a school district calendar on the bench to ensure there are no conflicts with state standardized tests.
- ¹ This bench card was created to assist judges when a child is present in the courtroom. It does not include what information the judge should require from additional parties, such as a report from the child's therapist about the child's mental health status.
- ² The social worker or caregiver can provide the court with a picture.
- Older adolescents can understand more complex concepts.
- ⁴ See Andrea Khoury, With Me, Not Without Me: How to Involve Children in Court, Child Law Practice, Vol. 26, No. 9 (November 2007).
- Where do you want to live? What do you like about your home? Do you know why you live away from home? Do you see your mom and dad? What things do you like to do with them? Do you wish you could see them more?
- ⁶ It may be necessary to address issues related to the youth's safety at the courthouse and the appropriateness of courtroom waiting areas. Judges may find it beneficial to have age-appropriate games and books available.
- ⁷ Questions that address permanency may include: Who do you spend most of your time with? Over the holidays, who do you spend time with? Is there a relative that you are close to? Is there a close family friend that you like to spend time with? Do you know what adoption is? Do you want to be adopted?
- 8 Sharing court documents increases awareness and gives the youth a sense of control.

- Thank the youth for coming to court.
- Encourage the youth to attend the next hearing.
- Ask the youth whether he has any last questions, thoughts, or concerns.

Possible questions to ask the youth

- Who is your favorite teacher? Why?
- Do you participate in sports or other extracurricular activities?
- Is there anyone helping you with vocational or college applications?⁹
- When will you graduate?
- What are your post-graduation plans?
- Do you have an interest in the military?
- Do you have a mentor?
- Do you have someone you can call at anytime?
- Who do you rely on if you need help?
- Do you drive?
- What do you like to do on the weekends?
- Do you have a job?
